

CHRISTIAN ZIONISM: SUPPORTING THE ENEMIES OF CHRIST!

JAN LILLEBY

It is safe to say that the foremost supporters of the Zionist state, Israel, today seem to be the organization headed by Pastor John Charles Hagee, San Antonio, Texas. His congregation meets in 'Cornerstone Church', San Antonio. He and his supporters established the 'Christians United for Israel' organization back in February 7, 2006 assisted by some 400 delegates. See details in this clip from Wikipedia below, - which also informs us of Pastor Hagee being a heretical preacher, based on Pentecostal basic beliefs, added the heresy of Word of Faith movement with its 'Prosperity Gospel', - known also as one of many American Tele-evangelists broadcasting programs in Canada and USA.

From 'Wikipedia' -

John Charles Hagee (born April 12, 1940) is an American pastor and televangelist. He founded John Hagee Ministries, which telecasts to the United States and Canada. He is also the founder and chairman of the Christian Zionist organization Christians United for Israel.

Hagee has attracted controversy over his comments on the Catholic Church, Jewish people and Islam, and promotion of the blood moon prophecy.

Early life

Hagee was born in Baytown, Texas on April 12, 1940.^[1] He studied at Southwestern Assemblies of God University in Waxahachie, Texas, and received a Bachelor of Science, and then studied at Trinity University and obtained a second Bachelor of Science. He also studied at the University of North Texas in educational administration and received a master's degree in 1966.^[2]

He has a son, Matt Hagee, who is also a pastor.^[3]

Career

Image: Cornerstone Church

Hagee founded Trinity Church in San Antonio, Texas in 1966, a second Trinity Church in 1975, and Cornerstone Church in 1975.^[4] The church has adopted Pentecostal beliefs, including biblical literalism, speaking in tongues, divine healing, the prosperity gospel, and absolute opposition to abortion.^[5] Beginning in 1981 in San Antonio, following Operation Opera, Hagee has organized "A Night to Honor Israel" events aiming to show support for the State of Israel.^[6]

Hagee has been politically active. In 1968, he endorsed Democrat George Wallace in his bid for president. His advocacy included organizing and mobilizing a youth movement called "Wallace Youth".^{[7][8][9]}

In 1996, Hagee spoke on behalf of Republican presidential primary candidate Alan Keyes, who in 2004 lost the U.S. Senate election in Illinois to Barack Obama.^[10]

In 2002, Hagee endorsed the conservative State Representative John Shields in the latter's unsuccessful bid for the Republican primary for the District 25 seat in the Texas Senate. Hagee dubbed Shields's opponent, incumbent Jeff Wentworth, "the most pro-abortion" of 181 legislators in both houses of the Texas legislature.^[11]

On February 7, 2006, Hagee and some 400 leaders from across the Christian and Jewish communities formed Christians United for Israel (CUFI). This lobbies members of the United States Congress, using a biblical stance for promoting Christian Zionism. Around that time he received death threats for his activism on behalf of the State of Israel and hired bodyguards for protection.^[12]

In 2008, Hagee endorsed Senator John McCain in the presidential contest against Barack Obama.^[10] After Hagee's endorsement of McCain, a furor arose over statements made by Hagee that were perceived by some as anti-Catholic and antisemitic.^{[13][14][12][15][16]}

Following Hagee's remarks, McCain publicly distanced himself from Hagee.^{[17][18]}

Hagee was the primary funding source for the Israeli Zionist group Im Tirtzu, until he cut ties with the organization in 2013.^[19] He is also anti-abortion and stopped giving money to Israel's Hadassah Medical Center when it began offering the procedure.^[20]

In 2016, Hagee endorsed Donald Trump in the 2016 presidential election.^[21]

End of Wikipedia clip.

To this short intro on Pastor Hagee, belongs the fact that he is much like the 'Tip of the Iceberg' - for he is followed by hordes of infamous heretics, such as Benny Hinn, Kenneth Copeland, even Joel Osteen (largest mega-church in USA). Even if Hagee has a Pentecostal basic belief, one will find lots of Baptist pastors and pastors from other movements supporting his fanaticism with Israel's existential matters.

Hagee is regarded as a heretic by most denominations in USA, and also abroad.

The Internet is full of writings going against this political/Christian manipulator of souls.

One of these sites is www.reformation21.org - with much material exposing Hagee. This site has an article called 'John Hagee removes all doubt - He's a heretic!'.^[22]

I recently published two articles on the late Pastor J.R. Church, which brings up much of the same views on Israel and Zionism as we find with Pastor Hagee. They are in great error not only with Israel as a state, but many Biblical issues as well. Always taking the Bible out of proper context to propagate their fanatically views in many topics.

CHRISTIAN ZIONISM SAY THAT THE WHOLE WORLD SHALL HAVE THE 'GREAT TRIBULATION' WHICH IS PROPHESED IN THE BIBLE

This issue is critical, for without staying with the correct context when reading Bible prophecies, one would get things turned upside-down. Then we will erroneously get 'Israel is rescued by God, while the world gets punished' ideas!

The Bible shows us that the 'Great Tribulation' told by Jesus in Mat. 24:21, 22, NASB, - is a warning addressed to Israel, not the Gentile world,

«^[21] "For then there will be a great tribulation, such as has not occurred since the beginning of the world until now, nor ever * will."^[22]

^[22] "Unless those days had been cut short, no * life would have been saved; but for the sake of the elect those days will be cut short."

Jesus spoke with details, but it was based upon Jer. 30:4-9 – on Israel's future tribulation, not the world's, - in particular verse 7, NASB,

«4 Now these are the words which the LORD spoke concerning Israel and concerning Judah:»

5 "For thus says the LORD, 'I have heard a sound of terror, Of dread, and there is no peace.»

6 'Ask now, and see If a male can give birth. Why do I see every man With his hands on his loins, as a woman in childbirth? And why have all faces turned pale?»

7 'Alas! for that day is great, There is none like it; And it is the time of Jacob's distress, But he will be saved from it.»

8 'It shall come about on that day,' declares the LORD of hosts, 'that I will break his yoke from off their neck and will tear off their bonds; and strangers will no longer make them their slaves.»

9 'But they shall serve the LORD their God and David their king, whom I will raise up for them.»

Editor's emphasize.

Verse 7 is translated in many Bibles, using the word ...the time of Jacob's trouble.

The AMP Bible net version says,

“ 'Alas! for that day is great, There is none like it; It is the time of Jacob's [unequaled] trouble, But he will be saved from it”.

This is in line with Jesus, Who told that the tribulation to come, would be like no other (Mat. 24:21).

Jesus was warning Israel of the tribulation, and NOT the Gentile world.

The utter nonsense promoted by these heretical pastors and evangelists, mostly those in the USA, of a soon coming 'Armageddon' in the capacity of a Third World War (including nukes and what not) has its basis in this twisted and out of context Bible belief. They simply will not understand that the prophesied tribulation is only to hit Israel, due to the nation's grave sin and blasphemies against Jesus Christ. The Lord shall be vindicating His holy name, the Bible says. The Lord shall send the 'Great Tribulation' upon Zionist Israel, the worst enemies of the Lord, ever!

THE PROPHECY OF EZEKIEL 36, THE
LORD SHALL VINDICATE HIS HOLY NAME
UPON ISRAEL IN THE ENDTIME

Ez. 36:19-23, NASB, tells of the Gentile nations becoming witnesses to what God will do to Israel, as He shall vindicate His holy name (Jesus Christ), «19 "Also I scattered them among the nations and they were dispersed throughout the lands. According to their ways and their deeds I judged them.

20 "When they came to the nations where * they went, they profaned My holy name, because it was said of them, 'These are the people of the LORD; yet they have come out of His land.'

21 "But I had concern for My holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the nations where * they went.

22 "Therefore say to the house of Israel, 'Thus says the Lord GOD, "It is not for your sake, O house of Israel, that I am about to act, but for My holy name, which you have profaned among the nations where * you went.

23 "I will vindicate the holiness of My great name which has been profaned among the nations, which you have profaned in their midst. Then the nations will know that I am the LORD," declares the Lord GOD, "when I prove Myself holy among you in their sight."

Editor's emphasize.

Verse 19 pertains to the dispersion which happened in 70 CE as Rome destroyed Israel.

The passage tells of Israel BLASPHEMING the holy name of the Lord (Jesus Christ!) the entire timespan since 70 CE up until He sends the 'Great Tribulation'. This tribulation is to restore His name in the sight of Israel first, then the Gentile world. Thus the nations will be witnessing (in awe) how God deals with the ungodly Zionist state Israel.

The Christian Zionists have gotten it all wrong, turning it upside-down. For the Bible clearly says that God shall whip and torment Israel – not the Gentile world (ref. Rev. 11:10...the two witnesses tormented Israel in their ministry of 3 ½ years).

All the horror full and frightening disasters and signs of punishing character seen in Rev. 6 and on – the three 'sevens': Seven Seals, Seven Bowls of wrath, Seven Trumpets, plus the three Woes. It falls on the land of Israel, in same manner as when Moses took them out of Egypt. Only Egypt was hit by the plagues. Moses and Aaron went a one day trip into the dessert to stay safe, it says. The two witnesses in Rev. 11 will prophesy to them and warn Israel before each disaster hits them. Just as when Moses warned Egypt, giving them 24 hours to take cover.

Christian Zionists, who ever they might be, are a collective bunch of liars when they declare that 'Armageddon' will come to the whole world. It is pure rubbish and a blatant lie. Unlearned pastors and evangelists are proclaiming these lies all over the place.

They have no idea of the Bible rightly divided. To them the Bible is a 'Beefstew' of confusion...a total mixture of verses taken out of context, creating their own 'Bubble' of Bible doctrine contradicting the Word of God.

After God has finished the 'Great Tribulation' He will have His Son Jesus Christ take the throne of David on Zion, the Temple Mount, and He shall rein Israel for one thousand years (Rev. 20:4).

To all of you Christians in USA, as well as other nations, I urge you to turn your backs on Christian Zionism anywhere. It's a total heresy, turning the Word of God upside-down, twisting and manipulating the Bible truths and thus casting false fear and worries upon an unsuspecting Christianity.

MORE REFLECTIONS ON THE GAZA WAR

JAN LILLEBY

I 'launched' my fresh idea...or reflection, in that first 'Gaza-article' – that it may be fully probable that the 'Great Tribulation' will start, as God intervene at an ongoing future Gaza-war.

Referring to His sending the two witnesses or prophets down to punish and reform the Zionist state; and the two are Moses and Elijah.

When we have this scenario – that of an already ongoing war being interrupted by God – maybe it will come more understandable to us when reading the Revelation Book.

Rev. 11:5, 6, NASB,

"And if anyone wants to harm them, fire flows out of their mouth and devours their enemies; and so if anyone wants to harm them, he must be killed in this way.

6 These have the power to shut up the sky, so that rain will not fall during the days of their prophesying; and they have power over the waters to turn them into blood, and to strike the earth with every plague, as often as they desire.”

Verse 5 was a main quote in the first article, but here we shall dwell a bit in verse 6 – the two witnesses performing frightening signs of punishment, using the elements of nature, the air (sky) and the waters.

Remember, it is war in Gaza, and the place is probably planned for total extinction...Israel's army are ordered to kill and destroy them once and for all.

So, what happens?

HELL ON EARTH IS WHAT WILL HAPPEN!

Verse 6 tells of two gigantic moves of God through His prophets of doom: The first is that they will SHUT UP HEAVEN FOR RAIN, FOR THE NEXT 3 $\frac{1}{2}$ YEARS!

Who was it, in the Old Testament times, that had the heavens shut up for rain? Yes, my dear reader, it was ELIJAH. In other words this has happened before.

We need to let a quote from Jesus come to our remembrance. He and Peter, James and John came down from the Tabor mountain. They had witnessed the appearance of Elijah and Moses, talking with Jesus. And in the explanation given by Jesus – on the presence of these two known prophets of God, Jesus remarked about Elijah, Mat. 17:10, 11, NASB,

“ And His disciples asked Him, “Why then do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?”

11 And He answered and said, “Elijah is coming and will restore all things”.

In Mat. 14, we learn that John the Baptist was killed by Herod Antipas. He was a metaphor of the coming of Elijah before the day of the Lord. John was not the real live Elijah. But, as we find Jesus in Mat. 17 – several weeks after John died – then He talked (prophesied) of the real Elijah, the prophet. He shall then come to Israel together with Moses...as we see foretold in Rev. 11.

In Elijah's days we learn of a famine which struck the land. And in that situation we find the miracle of the jars always filled with flour, and one with olive oil, for baking bread, for the widow at Zarephath in Sidon.

1 Kings 17:1-24 NASB,

“ Now Elijah the Tishbite, who was of [a] the settlers of Gilead, said to Ahab, “As the LORD, the God of Israel lives, before whom I stand, there shall certainly be neither dew nor rain during these years, except by my word.”

2 Then the word of the LORD came to him, saying,

3 “Go away from here and turn eastward, and hide yourself by the brook Cherith, which is [b] east of the Jordan.

□□ 4 And it shall be that you will drink from the brook, and I have commanded the ravens to provide food for you there."

□□ 5 So he went and did□□ everything□□ according to the word of the□□ LORD, for he went and lived by the brook Cherith, which is□□ [c]east of the Jordan.

□□ 6 And the ravens brought him bread and meat in the morning and bread and meat in the evening, and he would drink from the brook.

□□ 7 But it happened after a while that the brook dried up, because there was no rain in the land.

8 Then the word of the□□ LORD□□ came to him, saying,

□□ 9 "Arise, go to Zarephath, which belongs to Sidon, and stay there; behold, I have commanded a widow there to provide food for you."

□□ 10 So he arose and went to Zarephath, and when he came to the entrance of the city, behold, a widow was there gathering sticks; and he called to her and said, "Please get me a little water in a□□ [d]cup, so that I may drink."

□□ 11 As she was going to get□□ it, he called to her and said, "Please bring me a piece of bread in your hand."

□□ 12 But she said, "As the□□ LORD□□ your God lives, I have no food, only a handful of flour in the□□ [e]bowl and a little oil in the jar; and behold, I am gathering□□ [f]a few sticks so that I may go in and prepare it for me and my son, so that we may□□ [g]eat it and die."

□□ 13 However, Elijah said to her, "Do not fear; go, do as you have said. Just make me a little bread loaf from□□ [h]it first and bring□□ it□□ out to me, and afterward you may make□□ one□□ for yourself and for your son.

□□ 14 For this is what the□□ LORD, the God of Israel says: 'The□□ [i]bowl of flour shall not be used up, nor shall the jar of oil become empty, until the day that the□□ LORD□ provides rain on the face of the earth.'

□□ 15 So she went and did□□ everything□□ in accordance with the word of Elijah, and she and he and her household ate for□□ many□□ days.

□□ 16 The□□ [j]bowl of flour was not used up, nor did the jar of oil become empty, in accordance with the word of the □ LORD□□ which He spoke through Elijah.

17 Now it happened after these things that the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, became sick; and his ^[k]condition became very grave, until at the end ^[l]he was no longer breathing.

18 So she said to Elijah, “^[m]Why is my business any of yours, you man of God? Yet you have come to me to bring my wrongdoing to remembrance, and to put my son to death!”

19 But he said to her, “Give me your son.” Then he took him from her ^[n]arms and carried him up to the upstairs room where he was living, and laid him on his own bed.

20 And he called to the LORD and said, “LORD, my God, have You also brought catastrophe upon the widow with whom I am ^[o]staying, by causing her son to die?”

21 Then he stretched himself out over the boy three times, and called to the LORD and said, “LORD, my God, please, let this boy’s life return ^[p]to him.”

22 And the LORD listened to the voice of Elijah, and the life of the boy returned ^[q]to him and he revived.

23 Elijah then took the boy and brought him down from the upstairs room into the house and gave him to his mother; and Elijah said, “See, your son is alive.” 24 Then the woman said to Elijah, “Now I know that you are a man of God, and that the word of the LORD in your mouth is truth.”

This fabulous story of Elijah and his very dramatic eventful ministry is well known not only inside Christendom, but in the entire world.

Notice the exact words spoken by Elijah to the Baal worshipping ungodly king Ahab – I have emphasized this verse 1.

He used same pronouncement as found in Rev. 11:4,

“These are the two olive trees and the two lampstands ^[r]that stand before the Lord of the earth.”

Elijah was one ^[s]who stood before the Lord...that is, he was always ready and in ministry for the Lord. At all times, and in the meaning of eternity.

It will be ^[t]by Elijah’s orders and prophecy that God shall let the heaven above be shut up, and there shall be a famine in Israel in the start-up of the tribulation...soon to happen.

THE OVERRULING INTERVENTION OF GOD

If it were not for the fact that ^[u]it will be God Who rules and decides regarding that Great Tribulation, the famine in Israel could be broken by the rest of the wealthy nations sending food aid, including water.

But this will not be happening, since God through His two prophets will 'seal off' Israel for such aid. It will be impossible to break the strict famine falling on Israel for her ungodliness.

Secondly, God is not just making the rain stop for 3 ½ years, but He has another prophet there in company with Elijah, - the 'king of prophets' - MOSES.

Rev. 11:6 - added to Rev. 16:3, 4, says that in same instance as rain is stopped, all waters in Israel will be 'turned into blood, as that of a dead man'. This frightening sign was performed through Moses before Pharaoh Ramses II as he prepared Egypt for letting the Hebrews free of slavery.

"And the second angel poured out his vial upon the sea; and it became as the blood of a dead man: and every living soul died in the sea. And the third angel poured out his vial upon the rivers and fountains of waters; and they became blood." (Rev. 16:3, 4).

My conclusion must therefore be that God makes an instant effect of 'no water' policy: Rain is stopped at the same time as all waters become undrinkable; it has been made into blood.

The world watching this in the TV news after it happen will be shocked and shaken beyond our wildest imagination.

The warriors in that particular future 'Gaza conflict' will be paralyzed and scared in a total panic...they will quickly understand that this is not just hitting them, as soldiers, but their families will starve and suffer. The effect will be as if they had the roof over them fall down!

No wonder then, that we find these two prophets armed to their teeth - that super-weapon of flashy fire by which they kill every person (these are soldiers) who dare go up against them in the 1260 days of ministry. Rev. 11:5.

THE DEATH OF THESE PROPHETS CAUSES
CELEBRATION SCENES AND JOY IN ISRAEL

Rev. 11:7-10 NASB,

"When they have finished their testimony, the beast that comes up out of the abyss will make war with them, and overcome them and kill them.

8 And their dead bodies will lie on the street of the great city which [f]spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also their Lord was crucified.

9 Those from the peoples, tribes, languages, and nations will look at their dead [g]bodies for three and a half days, and [h]will not allow their dead bodies to be laid in a tomb.

10 And those who live on the earth will rejoice over them and celebrate; and they will send gifts to one another, because these two prophets tormented those who live on the earth." (Editor's emphasize)

The beast mentioned (v. 7), is Anti-Christ of course. He arrives in the middle of the seven years tribulation, as the 1260 days of the two prophets are fulfilled, and the 42 months of the rule of Anti-Christ starts up. The last 3 ½ years will happen without the two witnesses present. But their disciples, the 144 000 of the twelve tribes of Israel will be present, and many of these (if not all?) become martyrs for Jesus Christ. (See Rev. 20:4 telling of their resurrection at the Second Advent.)

The effect and damages caused by the two witnesses must have been awesome, and therefore we learn of the people's great relief when they are killed by the beast. People are so frightened that they dare not go close to their dead bodies; neither will they try to remove their bodies from the street in Jerusalem. They watch that street scenario for 3 ½ days. The prophets tormented those who lived in Israel. A shallow translation here in NASB may mislead readers to think that these signs and punishments were happening all over the earth. Earth here should really have been translated the land.

It all happens in Israel. It starts up in Jerusalem with its new temple, the water-embargo hits only Israel, and all the other super-natural punishments and signs seen in Rev. chapt. 6 -16 ...asteroids and meteors falling on the land, and in Rev. 9 we find the monsters of the Abyss, stinging Israelites with their scorpion tails for five months (tormenting them!) so they try to commit suicide, but death will not occur. I am personally convinced that those who get tortured by these monsters, they are soldiers and not regular civilians. God shall really whip and flog these brutal Israeli soldiers! God will paralyze and stop the Israeli war-machine in their tracks. It does not happen out in the world and in all the nations; it will only hit Israel as the Great Tribulation is going on. We can trust Jer. 30:7 which clearly prophesied that it will be 'The time of Jacob's trouble' – which was his name before it became Israel.

The government of Israel as well as their armed forces will be completely paralyzed and knocked out and unable to decide anything regarding all that is going down during the 'Great Tribulation'!

REFLECTIONS ON THE GAZA WAR

JAN LILLEBY

The conflict between Hamas and the Israeli army has reached a huge number of casualties and death and destruction. Experts have commented over media that it is the worst conflict since 50 years.

We have all seen frightening TV reports showing the bombings and exchanging of missiles raining over the border. Resulting in destruction of not only homes and business buildings in Gaza, but also the hospitals. It's a dirty-rotten-shame.

Those who shouts 'Hamas started this war' – they have willfully forgotten that it was Israel which started the waves of terrorism, way back before 1948 and the declaration of the state of Israel.

It was Haganah, the Stern gang (Lehi) and other militant Israeli terror groups, like Irgun, which went about killing the inhabitants in Palestine. It was those (Irgun) which bombed Hotel King David in 1946, killing over 90 people. Check out my clip from Wikipedia:

"The British administrative headquarters for Mandatory Palestine, housed in the southern wing^[1] of the King David Hotel in Jerusalem, were bombed in a terrorist attack^{[2][3]} on July 22, 1946, by the militant right-wing Zionist underground organization the Irgun during the Jewish insurgency.^{[5][6][7]} 91 people of various nationalities were killed, including Arabs, Britons and Jews, and 46 were injured.^[8] IMAGE: The ruined hotel.

The hotel was the site of the central offices of the British Mandatory authorities of Palestine, principally the Secretariat of the Government of Palestine and the Headquarters of the British Armed Forces in Palestine and Transjordan.^{[8][9]} When planned, the attack had the approval of the Haganah, the principal Jewish paramilitary group in Palestine, though, unbeknownst to the Irgun, this had been cancelled by the time the operation was carried out. The main motive of the bombing was to destroy documents incriminating the Jewish Agency in attacks against the British, which were obtained during Operation Agatha, a series of raids by mandate authorities. It was the deadliest attack directed at the British during the Mandate era (1920–1948).”

It was Irgun and Lehi (Stern gang) (Menachem Begin was one of the gunmen/assassins!!) which committed a cold blooded massacre of innocent village inhabitants, as they were sleeping inside their houses, in Deir Yassin, the early morning of April 9, 1948. They slaughtered also women and children.

Check out yet one more Wikipedia clip:

“The Deir Yassin massacre took place on April 9, 1948, when around 130 ^[1] fighters from the Zionist paramilitary groups Irgun and Lehi killed at least 107 Palestinian Arab villagers, including women and children, in Deir Yassin, a village of roughly 600 people near Jerusalem, despite having earlier agreed to a peace pact. The massacre occurred while Jewish militia sought to relieve the blockade of Jerusalem during the civil war that preceded the end of British rule in Palestine. ^[4]

The village put up stiffer resistance than the Jewish militias had expected and they suffered casualties, but it fell after house-to-house fighting. Some of the Palestinian Arab villagers were killed in the course of the battle, while others were massacred by the Jewish militias while trying to flee or surrender. A number of Palestinian Arab prisoners were executed, some after being paraded in West Jerusalem, where they were jeered, spat at, stoned, looted, and eventually murdered. ^{[1][5][6]} In addition to the killing and widespread looting, there may have been cases of mutilation and rape. ^[7] Despite an original boast by the Jewish militias that 254 Palestinian Arabs had been killed, modern scholarship puts the death toll at far fewer. Palestinian historian Aref al-Aref counted 117 victims, seven in combat and the rest in their homes. ^[8] The number of wounded is estimated to be between 12 and 50. Five of the attackers were killed and a dozen wounded. ^[1]»

They also assassinated the Swedish diplomat Folke Bernadotte, Count of Wisborg, September 17, 1948. It was the Stern gang (Lehi). This also goes to show what total lack of respect the terror-state Israel has for UN-diplomats. Wikipedia clip gives a short info:

“After the war, Bernadotte was unanimously chosen to be the United Nations Security Council mediator in the Arab–Israeli conflict of 1947–1948. He was assassinated in Jerusalem in 1948 by the paramilitary Zionist group Lehi while pursuing his official duties. Upon his death, Ralph Bunche took up his work at the UN, successfully mediating the 1949 Armistice Agreements between Israel and Egypt."

Shure, I give you some reflections on the Gaza war!

But I am not so foolish as to 'forget' who really started it all. It is historically proven that it was Israel which started the long-lasting conflict and bloodbath in Palestine, - even before Israel was declared a state by UN in 1948.

Whether we mention the PLO-movement led by Yasser Arafat, or the newer Palestinian forces, now known as Hamas, - they must historically be looked upon as defenders of their rightful land, which was stolen from them in the conspiring operations supported by the nations through UN.

Since the destruction of Israel in 70 CE by the Roman Army, the land had been used and cultured by diverse Jewish tribal survivors, Arabs, nomads...mostly farmers and pheasants before the creation of the Zionist state Israel.

THE GAZA HAVOCK SEEN IN THE LIGHT OF THE SECOND COMING OF JESUS CHRIST

Now it gets interesting.

Are you aware of the fact that Jesus foretold of the illegal Zionist movement, through the incident of the demon possessed man in Mat. 12:22,23; 43-45 ?

AMP Bible net version,

"Then a demon-possessed man who was blind and mute was brought to Jesus, and He healed him, so that the mute man both spoke and saw. 23 All the people wondered in amazement, and said, "Could this be the Son of David (the Messiah)?" --- --- ---

"Now when the unclean spirit has gone out of a man, it roams through waterless (dry, arid) places in search of rest, but it does not find it. 44 Then it says, 'I will return to my house from which I came.' And when it arrives, it finds the place unoccupied, swept, and put in order. 45 Then it goes and brings with it seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they go in and make their home there. And the last condition of that man becomes worse than the first. So will it also be with this wicked generation."

Jesus likened this incident with what Israel should commit in a far future: "I will return to my house from which I came" - this is a reference to the House of Israel...in light of them having been cast out of their land in 70 CE by the Romans. Israel, just like the demon whom Jesus cast out of the blind and mute man, was cast out and the nation ceased to exist. And as the demon in Jesus' parable (verse 44) it found the house unoccupied and swept and put in order. The farmers had used the 'house' (Israel's former land) for centuries and kept it in order. Most Christians today are thinking rightfully that these farmers and families were allowed by God to do so. God chased His disobedient people out of there, using the Romans (Mat. 22:7) in 70 CE.

Jesus' warning of the Zionist-movement in verse 45, as He tells of the 'demon' Israel bringing with her seven other demons (gentile peoples) MORE WICKED THAN ITSELF...and they go in and make their home there.

Jesus' conclusion was spot-on:

"And the last condition of that man (Israel) becomes worse than the first. SO WILL IT ALSO BE WITH THIS WICKED GENERATION."

This prophesied wickedness about the Zionist Jews and the gentile peoples with them, is what we can see in today's destruction and warfare against Gaza and the near areas.

It seems as if the Israeli government has a perverse amusement in killing Palestinians by the tens of thousands. They operate with their heavily armed soldiers (weapons from USA!) and it looks more than genocide than just a regular war.

BEFORE THE SECOND COMING, THE LORD
SHALL SEND HIS TWO JUDGEMENT PROPHETS NAMELY ELIJAH AND MOSES

I cannot help thinking that it may be very probable that God will intervene by sending His two prophets (Rev. 11) down in Israel, when the nation has a heavy war situation going.

Maybe not in this present (December 2023) conflict; but it is wise to expect another conflict soon to come. So, even if a peace-agreement could be in place in the near future, there will come yet another conflict...and this will be so dreadful that God may find it right to intervene. He will start up the prophesied 'Great Tribulation' – a period of seven Jewish years preceding the Second Advent. The two prophets in Rev. 11 (Moses and Elijah) will administer this frightful time, so to cleanse the ungodly Israel and have the survivors repent to Jesus Christ. They shall prophecy for 1260 days it says (3 $\frac{1}{2}$ years) and shall be armed supernaturally by God Almighty - all their enemies will be consumed by fire which will flash out from them.

I always asked myself of why these two prophets would need to have such a heavy super-weapon at their disposal?

The only answer I can find is that they are sent down from heaven by God and Christ in the midst of a fierce war going on!

It is therefore very logically to learn that this scenario falls in with the idea that the two will arrive from heaven when there is a war situation going on. They don't have to carry guns and cannons, for they are armed with an enormous fire-power of supernatural dimensions which the world has never seen before. IMAGE: Gaza ruins.

Rev. 11:4-6 AMP,

"These [witnesses] are the two olive trees and the two lampstands which stand before the Lord of the earth."

5 And if anyone wants to harm them, fire comes out of their mouth and devours their enemies; so if anyone wants to harm them, he must be killed in this way. (Editor's comment: This implies that the super-weapon will actually be used by them!)

6 These [two witnesses] have the power [from God] to shut up the sky, so that no rain will fall during the days of their prophesying [regarding judgment and salvation]; and they have power over the waters (seas, rivers) to turn them into blood, and to strike the earth with every [kind of] plague, as often as they wish."

God is going to take down Israel and thus saving her neighbors from getting killed by their brutal army.

God will go to war against Israel, and through that action He shall bring forth a new Israel which will follow Jesus Christ in obedience and faith. Those who go up against Him in that seven-year period shall perish. According to Zech. 13:8 there will be two-thirds of the nation killed, and only one third saved/spared.

I believe that there will not be peace in the Middle-East for real, before the Second Advent.

Jesus prophesied of that tribulation-time before He went to the cross, Mat. 24:21, 22 AMP,

"For at that time there will be a great tribulation (pressure, distress, oppression), such as has not occurred since the beginning of the world until now, nor ever will [again]."

22 And if those days [of tribulation] had not been cut short, no human life would be saved; but for the sake of the elect (God's chosen ones) those days will be shortened."

Shortly before He said this, we can read (v. 15) that He told that this tribulation should come as an 'Abomination of Desolation' would be installed inside their temple, as foretold by Daniel. He spoke of the Anti-Christ occupying the temple, as he will tell the nation that they must fall down before Him, as their God.

Paul also wrote of Anti-Christ, 2 Thes. 2:1-4 AMP,

1 Now in regard to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our gathering together to meet Him, we ask you, brothers and sisters,□□

2not to be quickly unsettled or alarmed either by a [so-called prophetic revelation of a] spirit or a message or a letter [alleged to be] from us, to the effect that the day of the Lord has [already] come.□□

3Let no one in any way deceive□□ or□□ entrap you, for□□ that day will not come□□ unless the apostasy comes first [that is, the great rebellion, the abandonment of the faith by professed Christians], and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the son of destruction [the Antichrist, the one who is destined to be destroyed],□□

4who opposes and exalts himself [so proudly and so insolently] above every so-called god or object of worship, □ so that he [actually enters and] takes his seat in the temple of God, publicly proclaiming that he himself is God.”

The□□ apostasy□□ mentioned in verse 3, happened as Paul confronted the Sanhedrin in Rome□□ in the summer, 60 CE.□

See Acts 28:25-28.□□ Israel fell away from God as His nation on earth, and in 70 CE they were destroyed and scattered in the world.□□ This apostasy never had anything to do with the present Church dispensation. It has to do with Israel, which refused to accept Jesus as their Messiah! But the third temple has not yet been built (it is seen standing in Rev. 11) – so there will be no appearance of Anti-Christ until it has been raised...or maybe shortly before it is raised.

We shall have to wait and see what the future brings in this regard. But one day God will intervene.

Israel Was Not□□ Just□□ ‘Sat Aside’ as □□ Result of Her Fall in Acts 28: She Was Entirely Destroyed!

JAN LILLEBY

□□□□ It has become a ‘household’ expression in Acts 28 circles to speak of Israel as a nation which was ‘sat aside’ by God, after Paul confronted the Sanhedrin at Rome in Acts 28:25-28, □□ 60 AD.

To my mind – after so many years of study and repetitive indulging and ‘digging’ in the Word of God, I find it not entirely correct.

It is unfortunately much grimmer than that.

There must be no doubt that Israel as a nation was more than just 'sat aside'.

Should I express myself totally direct and blunt, I should rather say that Israel was blotted out, annulled, even returned back to where they came from...as if they never ever had been in existence at all!

When the day arrives with Jesus' return from heaven, to establish the promised millennial kingdom (Dan. 2:44; Rev. 19-20) – He shall not establish the Israel which once existed. He will have to rise up and elect an entirely new national people for Himself. He does not bring back that which was, but arranges and establishes a fully new people to Himself. Why? Because there exists no Israel (in the eyes of God) today and eventually has been called by God to come forth as His nation on earth.

When Israel was destroyed in 70 AD, it resulted in the total disappearance of her. She ceased to exist. The later incident with the Bar Kokhba revolt in 132-136 CE (when Emperor Publius Aelius Hadrianus struck it down) has to be considered a 'death-cramp' and not uproar by some nation in existence. Afterwards, it was forbidden for any Jews to enter the city! The prisoners of war taken to Rome by Titus in 71-72 AD died under hard slavery and misery, and many thousands of prisoners taken captive in Israel were sent by sea vessels down to Alexandria, Egypt, to be sold as slaves, according to the prophecy of Moses in Deu. 28:68,

Ampl. Bible, "And the Lord shall bring you into Egypt again with ships by the way about which I said to you, YOU SHALL NEVER SEE IT AGAIN. And there you shall be sold to your enemies as bondmen and bondwomen, but no man shall buy you."

Flavius Josephus wrote in his book works "The Jewish War" (also called 'The War of the Jews') of how the Romans in 71-72 AD sent thousands of prisoners away by ships to Egypt...from the age of 17, both Jewish soldiers and their spouses.

But no one would buy, for the market was inflated – and so they were let loose on their own. Thus Deu. 28:68 was fulfilled.

We cannot just go on saying that 'Israel was set aside' – when we learn from Scripture plus history that she was actually annulled and returned back to where she once belonged – as slaves in Egypt! IMAGE: Front page of Josephus' book, showing a relief-work of prisoners carrying the Menora away from the temple.

This had never happened to the nation in earlier history. They were not annulled as the Assyrian king had great numbers of Jews from the ten northern tribes removed; neither did it happen when God had Nebuchadnezzar, King of Babylon, take them captive in 586 BC – for which Jeremiah prophesied that Israel would be held there in 70 years, but be allowed to come back to Israel's land. They came back by three 'Alayah' starting in king Cyrus the Great's first year of reign, which was 456 BC according to historic documents. History shows that only ten percent of the Jews went back to build Jerusalem.

But when Israel was taken by Rome, then we get a totally different story. They were scattered out in the whole civilized world for their sin against the Lord, the denial and rejection of Jesus Messiah. WE CANNOT FIND ANY WORD SAYING THAT ISRAEL SHALL BE TAKEN BACK HOME, AS SUCH. But we find that God will form an entirely NEW ISRAEL, which has not existed in history.

Thus we can, for instance, read of the establishing of a new tribal system in Rev. 7. They are mentioned by names: Judah, Ruben, Gad, Asher, Naphtali, Manasseh, Simeon, Levi, Issachar, Zebulun, Joseph, Benjamin – so making up a total of 144 000 sealed tribal Jews – 12 000 of each tribe, called a firstfruit. Comparing this list with the sons of Jacob, we find that Dan is not there. But instead we find inserted in the list Manasseh. For what reason, I cannot say with any measure of certainty. But at least these are the ones who will be found when the Great Tribulation in Israel takes place. I suspect that Elijah and Moses (the two witnesses in Rev. 11) will be engaged to master this election and establishing of the new tribal system in Israel. Moses will for sure have revelation-power of who is who in regard to the tribes.

After Rome destroyed them in 70 AD and burned their temple, there have not been found any files of the population and the existing tribe-relations from before they were taken. They were burnt when the city went down. The temple was even laid flat to the ground, leaving not a stone-upon-another as Jesus foretold in Mat. 24:2; this because most of the silver and gold had melted in the fire and the soldiers therefore removed each stone to be able to loot the place of these costly metals. We speak of tons, not kilos.

No Jew today can with certainty tell whether he actually is a Jew, much less which eventual tribe he comes from!

This election and sealing of these 144 000 Jews in Rev. 7 (see also Rev. 14) is actually the move of God to create a NEW ISRAEL. And like the ancient Israel, there have to be a tribal system there. Without tribes, there shall be no genuine Israel of God. Plus, they will have to believe on Jesus Christ. It is not enough just to be a Jew or Israelite. One must believe on Jesus as the Messiah of God.

Thus they are actually being 'sealed' with the name of Jesus and of God on their foreheads, Rev. 14:1,

JESUS

"Then I looked, and behold, the Lamb stood on Mount Zion, and with Him 144,000 (men) who had His name and His Father's name inscribed on their foreheads."

In Hebrew this inscription will look like the one seen here. Saying - Jesus Jehovah if English. They visibly tell onlookers that they are servants of Jesus and God Jehovah. It is an offence against the anti-Christ (the beast) and those who – at that time – have taken the mark (logo) of the beast upon their foreheads or their hand (Rev. 13:16-18). And the logo, or mark of the beast, has been hidden in plain sight, for you can see that logo below here – the hexagram (an ancient occult sign of Satan) as used in the flag of Israel. This is also the 'Star of Rephan' mentioned by Stephen in Acts 7:43 – it is not the 'Star of David' for such a symbol has never existed! Let me also add to this, that it is not the name of anti-Christ (uncoding it) which has the occult value of 666 referred in Rev. 13:18 – but it is the occult numeric value of the hexagram (mark of the beast) which gives that 666 figuration. Six tags/shapes making three sixes in sum. All those speculating 'prophets' out there trying to figure out who anti-Christ really is, are wasting their time by trying to figure out names giving a value of 666. That is impossible. It is the mark itself which has that hidden (occult) value of 666.

Originally the Jewish leaders at the time of UN-Declaration of Israel as a state in 1948, - had actually wanted to have a flag with the Menorah on, the seven-branched candelabrum used in the temple, and also way back when they had the Tabernacle. But certain Jews among these voted for that hexagram – and we find in history that this hexagram was the symbol used by the Rothschild dynasty. The very finance house behind the establishing of the Zionist-State Israel. They 'washed' the symbol by calling it "The Star of David" – knowing that it is the symbol of the satanic god idol Rephan.

There is not a chance that God has stood behind this establishment! The Israel we have in our time is entirely made and concocted by human powers (probably ignited by occult powers) such ones we can safely say does not believe on Jesus Christ. They will rather receive the anti-Christ when he comes forth!

Not only was Israel obliterated and annulled, returned back to Egypt by the Roman army forces in 71-72 AD – all because of their persecution and murder of the apostles (see Mat. 22:7), but the Zionist-Israel of 1948 will meet another round of damnation and doom and destruction, as God cast the Great Tribulation upon them. But out of that horrible seven year period, will emerge a NEW ISRAEL, a nation devoted to Jesus Christ, and they will be lawfully established in their land by God (not UN!) and shall be the Lord's Royal Priesthood as told in Scripture. Rev. 20:4. I am among those who really believe that we are not far away in time – it shall soon come to pass, and this present dispensation of the Church, the Body of Christ, shall soon be concluded according to Col. 3:1-4; Eph. 4:30. I think it all will be sooner than later. (Check out my article here on the site of this topic)

Thus Jesus condemned Zionism before it even emerged!

Christian Zionism holds the belief that the present Israel, since May 14, 1948 from the UN mandate given, was an act of God blessing Jewry with letting them return to their ancient homeland.

This concept is the opposite of what is the real truth and facts regarding Israel and the land of Palestine.

Israel today is in the land illegally, seen with the eyes of the Lord. I shall give you a number of reasons for that in a little while.

But first let us have a closer look at that prophecy Jesus uttered – and which He willfully tied to a case of demon possession! A possession which 'allows' Israel to kill children in Gaza and other places and civilians otherwise. A constant genocide is happening, even by the aid of mighty USA which sends them money and weaponry. It is a disgrace and a blasphemy against God.

MATTHEW 12 AND THE DEMON POSSESSED MAN

This special incident occurred in verses 22 to 45, and the drive of this case is obviously the dispute between Jesus and the Pharisees present. The dispute ending with verses 43-45 in which the Lord gives His prediction of a future Israel illegally occupying the land which they first should be cast out of. My quotes are from Amplified Bible Expanded Edition 1987, unless otherwise noted.

22: Then a blind and dumb man under the power of a demon was brought to Jesus, and He cured him, so that the blind and dumb man both spoke and saw.

Already here, before Jesus spoke His prophecy in verses 43-45 – we already find the metaphor coming up to the surface, which Jesus would expand upon:

Israel's infamous blindness, experienced at least since the times of the apostles. Paul quoting Is. 6 to the Sanhedrin in Rome in Acts 28:25-26 of their being blind, deaf and unrepentant...a bitter truth which has followed Jewry in the dispersion up to this very day.

The crowds seeing this great miracle performed by Jesus got excited, to the extent that the Pharisees present became jealous and angry, and began to accuse Jesus of Satanic sorcery:

24: ...this man drives out demons only by and with the help of Beelzebub, the prince of demons.

Jesus made the foolishness of the Pharisees evident in the eyes of the crowd, saying among other things:

26: And if Satan drives out Satan, he has become divided against himself and disunified; how then will his kingdom last or continue to stand?

In verse 31 we find Jesus telling the Pharisees straight out: Blasphemy against the Holy Spirit will not and cannot be forgiven, ever. Having said in verse 28 that He cast out the demon by the power of the Holy Spirit, we clearly understand this judgmental statement from Jesus, and that the Pharisees were simply lost for all eternity because they blasphemed the Holy Spirit by saying that it was Beelzebub!

From verse 43 Jesus turns His mind and words entirely towards the future sinful disobedient aggressive Israel – and the case with the demon possessed man is the basis for His chastisement of the Pharisees. And through this stern speech we learn that the future Israel will turn worse in their fall away from God, than when God first cast them out of the land in 70 AD by the Roman Army.

43: But when the unclean spirit has gone out of a man, it roams through dry (arid) places in search of rest, but it does not find any.

By first impression it may seem that this is a lecture on demons in general. But this is not so: In Matt 8 Jesus experienced several demons cast out of the two wildly possessed men who held house in some tomb caves in the district of Gadarenes, and it ended by the demons taking the flock of hogs there, which then immediately ran straight into the lake and drowned. In other words, the demons did not seek some dry place, but the opposite: Water. So when Jesus not long after that had the dispute in Matt 12, it is evident that the demon cast out of that blind and dumb man, was not lectured about in a general term, but in a special one. Jesus spoke of Israel in the future: Out of their land (house) seeking and in unrest for centuries.

Moses said, Deu 28:65 – And among these nations you shall find no ease and there shall be no rest for the soles of your foot; but the Lord will give you there a trembling heart, failing of eyes (from disappointment of hope), fainting of mind, and languishing of spirit.

We got the proverbial word of the 'Wandering Jew' – always on the run seeking rest, finding none. Yes – but after a long time of wandering in places of unrest, they found that they would return to the house from which they had been cast out.

This is an accurate description of the Jews in the dispersion since 70 AD. Lasting for almost 2000 years now, and counting (65% of Jewry is NOT in the land). This scattering of the destroyed nation since 70 AD is what Jesus had in mind by metaphorically using the one demon He first had cast out of the man. But then something strange happens...

44: Then it says, I will go BACK TO MY HOUSE FROM WHICH I CAME OUT. And when it arrives, it finds the place unoccupied, swept, put in order, and decorated.

Of all the incidents we can read from the Bible in the New Testament, there is no one like this one. We learn of no other demon which had turned around and entered into a delivered person who had this same demon possessing him earlier.

Jesus therefore, was not speaking of demons having the ability and/or the possibility to re-possess a person. Reading of the Lord's apostles gives us no such incidents. When demons were cast out, they stayed out! So also did this particular demon in Matt 12, of course. The 'return' of that demon, was only in a metaphor and not concerning the delivered man.

Jesus spoke of this returning demon metaphorically as the future Israel.

And we could only understand this by the fact that this prediction is now history. Theodor Herzl, the Jewish Vienna based journalist in the late 1800s, had begun together with financial support from the Rothschild dynasty to propagate for getting back the land of Palestine as a national home to the Jews of the world. IMAGE: The occult 'Star of Remphan' a Satanic symbol of the numerical magical value of 666. The Zionist's official logo in their flag!

This early Zionist Movement can be equaled to what Jesus said in the quoted verse: The 'demon Israel' SAID, I WILL GO BACK TO MY HOUSE FROM WHICH I CAME OUT. And Rothschild funds bought several pieces of Palestinian land parcels, to start with. The Zionist Jews at this stage discovered that the land, even if only a few gentile farmers and Arab tribes used the soil, was considered by them to be ...unoccupied, swept, put in order, and decorated.

So then, everything seems ready and settled for Herzl and company to just go in there and start building homes, settlements and eventually new towns, right?

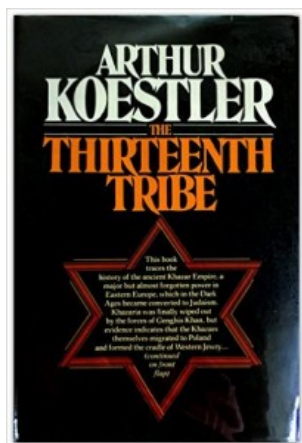

No folks, not at all. It is a lot more complicated than that. Jesus knew...

45: Then it (the 'demon' Israel) goes AND BRINGS WITH IT SEVEN OTHER SPIRITS MORE WICKED THAN ITSELF, and they go in and make their home there. And the last condition of the man becomes worse than the first. SO ALSO SHALL IT BE WITH THIS WICKED GENERATION.

THE SEVEN OTHER EVIL SPIRITS MORE WICKED THAN ITSELF – WHO ARE THEY?

Did you know that only 3-4% of the Israelis in the land are of the gender of Abraham? The remaining 96-97% are of gentile gender, namely from the Khazars of old, since the reign of King Bulan, today most often called Ashkenazy Jews. In modern times they occupied much of Polish land and their neighbors. Bulan had the nation converted into Babylonian-Talmud beliefs and he sent for 200 Jewish rabbis from the synagogues in Europe to come teach them Talmud religion. This all took place around 720-740 AD.

Jewry has tried to keep the history of the Khazars hidden from public knowledge, but since the famous book of Arthur Koestler, "The Thirteenth Tribe" – the knowledge has been spreading widely in the whole world. The National Library in Washington D.C. has several volumes of Khazar history. The Khazar kingdom was destroyed by Genghis Kahn's armies.

These seven other demons more wicked than itself, – seem to be the Khazars. For we find them in Israel today in the majority! Why are they more wicked? Their history testifies to us of dark cruelty and bloodthirst, they spared no one and slaughtered not only soldiers of their enemies, but also much of the civilians. They certainly have bad traditions from ancient times.

Menachem Begin, Aaron Sharon, Benjamin Netanyahu and most others among Israeli leadership over the years were/are Khazars – which is same as Ashkenazy folks. Gentiles converted into Jews. Also in USA we find many Khazars, and of course in Europe not the least.

Much more could be said of these matters, but I think my pointing out of Matt 12:43-45 is sufficient for anyone of you to see clearly how Jesus actually foretold of the coming Zionist Movement.

The association with DEMON POSSESSION is pretty accurate. For like demons, the Zionist Movement Israel, are destroyers and killers; they mock their surrounding neighbors and keep killing them (Gaza wars, etc.) – a systematic calculated genocide right before our nose-tips. Evil murdering demonic related frauds that want the world to think they are of Abraham and only want the land back since their forefathers owned it in olden times.

But Jesus will once again drive out the demon of the Israeli house.

This shall happen when He sends the Great Tribulation upon them, before too long. Most of the Revelation Book is about this scaring event. It will come.

Zach 13:8 says of that event that only one third of the population shall be saved, and two thirds are going to perish, as the Lord will have them killed/executed for their evil deeds and disobedience against Him, Jesus Christ.

Moses' words shall be fulfilled: And you shall be left few in number, whereas you had been as the stars of the heavens for multitude, because you would not obey the Lord your God (Christ). Deu 28:62.

But this little remnant of Jews from the horrible time of the tribulation, shall enter the new kingdom and be together with Christ in the millennia prophesied. Dan 2:44; Rev. 20:4.

Seeing that Christ used this incident with a demon possession to prophesy of the Zionist Movement, we must thereof understand that this event was unwanted by God. This was not God acting and 'blessing' Israel letting Jews and Khazars enter the land, no more than it would be a blessing from God to get yourself demon possessed!

Jesus has therefore left us His word so that we will understand the evil nature of the Zionist Movement, and also understand why God will deal so harshly with them by sending the Great Tribulation judgment.

Stay clear of all forms of Zionism, and Christian Zionism. The whole concept is demonic! Also will be the soon coming false Messiah called anti-Christ of Rev. 13.

WHAT WERE THE REASONS FOR GOD TO DESTROY AND SCATTER ISRAEL IN 70 AD?

I just want to have a closer look at what exactly laid behind the destruction of Israel in 70 AD.

Studying the Bible reveals to us at least two specific reasons for such an act of judgment from God.

In the outwardly, it may seem to the average man that the nation was destroyed simply because they rebelled against the mighty Rome. It was initiated by Jewry, or fractions of Jewry, in the land.

There were two 'candidates' that stood forth saying that they were God's chosen Messiah...and they raised a considerable uproar against Roman rule. These are mentioned in Josephus books 'The Jewish War'.

But as it were, Rome was but a tool or a weapon in the Lord's hands to chastise the fallen nation, ultimately having them destroyed and scattered in the world.

Paul taught of the Roman rulership (as a nation used by God for punishments) and said in Rom 13: 2-4:

Therefore he who resists and sets himself up against the authorities resists what God has appointed and arranged (in divine order). And those who resist will BRING DOWN JUDGMENT UPON THEMSELVES (receiving the penalty due them). 3: For civil authorities are not a terror to (people of) good conduct, but to (those of) bad behavior. Would you have no dread of him who is in authority? Then do what is right and you will receive his approval and commendation. 4: For he is God's servant for your good. But if you do wrong be afraid, for he does not bear and wear the sword for nothing. HE IS GOD'S SERVANT to execute His wrath on the wrongdoer.

This was written of the Roman Empire and it's standing before God. It was used by God to control Jewry at that time. That is why we, in Matt 22, will see that Jesus called this Roman power for 'The Kings Armies' (Himself as the king). In English Bibles it often says soldiers, but in Norwegian and other Bibles, it says armies.

Jesus gives us two specific parables, which pointed to the destruction:

The parable of 'The King's Servants' in Matt 22 and the parable of 'The Fruitless Figtree' in Luke 13.

THE PARABLE OF THE 'KINGS SERVANTS'

Matt 22:3-7 reads:

And He sent His servants to summon those who had been invited to the wedding banquet, but they refused to come. 4: Again He sent other servants, saying, Tell those who are invited, Behold, I have prepared my banquet; my bullocks and my fat calves are killed, and everything is prepared; come to the wedding feast. 5: But they were not concerned and paid no attention, and they went away – one to his farm, another to his business. 6: While the others seized His servants, treated them shamefully, and put them to death. 7: Hearing this, the king was infuriated; and He sent His soldiers and put those murderers to death and burned their city.

Those in verse 3 were the disciples as seen in Luke 10:1-16 sent out to towns in Israel before Jesus was killed. Jesus said to them at that time: Those who rejects you, rejects Me! Those in verse 4 were the disciples sent forth as apostles from the day of Pentecost in Acts 2. The persecution and killings mentioned in verse 6 are that which happened to the apostles and their assembly.

We notice in the parable, the king became very angry and sent forth His armies to deal with the evildoers that persecuted and killed several of His apostles. Most of whom we can read in Acts. In addition to Acts, Josephus testifies of the Sanhedrin killing the brother of John, James – in 64 AD, causing the entire Jerusalem assembly to head for Pella up north in Israel. And, Jesus said in His parable: The armies burnt their city, which of course was Jerusalem as we know what happened in 70 AD. Jesus Christ used the Roman armies to destroy Israel, to drive out the 'Demon Israel' from the land – like He foretold in Matt 12 and the demon-case mentioned, like a metaphor.

THE PARABLE OF THE 'FRUITLESS FIG TREE'

Luke 13:6-9 reads:

A certain man had a fig tree, planted in his vineyard, and he came looking for fruit on it, but did not find any. 7: So he said to the vinedresser, See here! For these three years I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree and I find none. Cut it down! Why should it continue also to use up the ground. 8: But he replied to him, Leave it alone, sir, just this one more year, till I dig around it and put manure on the soil. 9: Then perhaps it will bear fruit after this; but if not, you can cut it down and out.

The earthly ministry of Jesus was for three years, as He said in the parable. The fruit He mentions is equal to faith in Him as their Messiah of God. But He could not find fruit in Israel, the fig tree, as a nation. Only a minority had faith, as we read in Acts. Reading the Gospels and the Book of Acts we simply have to admit the bitter truth: Israel – even after over 30 some years, said a final ‘No thanks’ to Jesus as Messiah.

It was the apostles in history who made up the voice of the vinedresser in this parable. The manure put on the soil was their preaching and teaching of Jesus as Israel’s Messiah King, to come from heaven as soon as the nation had repented and been baptized, Acts 2:38.

The apostles taught the New Covenant in the blood of Jesus, according to Jer 31:31-34. See Hebr 8 and 9 chapters. And that requirement of ‘One extra year’ to make the fig tree recover, – was the 30 years of Acts history – but which ended with the final fall of Israel. God cut all contact as we see the Book of Acts closed, with Paul’s stern quoting of Is 6 of Israel’s blindness, deafness and unbelief. That year can be counted as an extra ‘Acceptable year of the Lord’ as we read in Is 61:2 – which equaled about 30 years in the calendar. But it ended with judgment, as the Roman battle axe cut down the fig tree, Israel, for it was not allowed anymore to use up the ground for no good reason. Unless Israel, the whole nation (!) has faith in Jesus, they cannot lawfully own and use the land.

What is left in our time, as we are still into the present church dispensation of the free grace salvation of Christ by faith (Eph 2:8), – is that God will let it run just a little more time...to see the sins of Israel piled up and running over for judgment. And when it reaches that utmost measure (Dan. 8:23), so that the Lord cannot stand it anymore, He shall conclude this dispensation by taking us into heaven (Col 3:1-4), and the same day He shall send down Elijah and Moses (Rev. 11) to administer the Great Tribulation in Israel, prophesying doom and frightening signs as we find in the Revelation Book.

PAUL CONFIRMING MATT 12:45 WITH DETAILS

2 Tim 3 was written to Timothy when it still was Israel and the offer to them of the New Covenant. At that time Israel was still God's nation on earth, and He had given the nation time to repent and be baptized, so He could send Jesus back from heaven to establish the promised millennial kingdom in Israel.

But Paul was given insight by the Lord to know the implications of the downfall of Israel, and the nation getting worse than ever in the end times. So we read:

JESUS: The last condition of that man (Israel) becomes worse than the first. So also shall it be with this wicked generation. Matt 12:45.

PAUL: ...that in the last days will come perilous times of great stress and trouble 2: for people will be lovers of self and self-centered, lovers of money (is it not Jewry which has become infamous throughout history of acting as usurpers?) and aroused by an inordinate desire for wealth, proud and arrogant and contemptuous boasters. They will be abusive (blasphemous, scoffing), disobedient to parents, ungrateful, unholy and profane. (think of Talmud's blasphemy against Jesus!). 3: without natural affection (callous and inhuman), relentless slanderers, intemperate and loose in morals and conduct, uncontrolled and fierce, haters of good. 4: treacherous (betrayers), rash, inflated with self-conceit, lovers of sensual pleasures and vain amusements more than and rather than lovers of God. 5: For although they hold a form of piety, they deny and reject and are strangers to the power of it (to Jesus Christ). Avoid such people..... (The red text is my comment).

I end the quote here. Leaving it to the reader to read the rest if you wish. It is all a disgusting matter – the downfall of Jewry is one big black hole – and that is why Paul admonished us to keep distance!

Eph 5:11 was written to us in the matter of keeping away from having any fellowship with such people:

Take no part in and have no fellowship with the FRUITLESS DEEDS (remember Luke 13 and the fig tree?) and enterprises of darkness, but instead expose and reprove and convict them.

But 2 Tim 3:9 was pointing to when Jesus comes from heaven, and will unmask the evil Zionist Jewry in full publicity for the entire world to see.

*...their rash folly will become obvious to everybody....*Paul prophesied.

There is no doubt that Zionism is a cause more affiliated with demon possessive powers than with Godfearing conduct and faith in Christ. It is therefore we find in the Bible that Jesus shall come with fierce judgment upon them. It is a fact.
